

HIGH HROTHGAR — ARNGEIR'S GUIDANCE (EMBLEM X)

“These are not letters for ink and quill. They were cut into rock by claws that weighed more than this hall. I will show your tongue how to shape the sounds, and how your lungs must hold the breath. But I will not speak the words for you. Even a whisper from these throats would split the timbers above our heads. The Voice is worship and true need; it is your breath that must unlock the mountain, not mine.”

- Drop your shoulders; fill the diaphragm first, then the chest.
